

THE HIDDEN WISDOM OF YESHUA

Teachings from the Yeshuan Path

A Gnostic Tao for the Children of Light

Edition 3.0 · October 2026

Written for the Seeker of Gnosis

Copyright © 2025–2026 by Rez Khan

All rights reserved.

The Hidden Wisdom of Yesbua

Edition 3.0

A note on these sayings:

These are new sayings, written in the spirit of the Gospel of Thomas, the Gospels of Mary and Philip, and the Tao Te Ching.

They are not ancient texts. Most answer a chapter of the Tao Te Ching; some answer other voices; sources and echoes are listed at the end.

Read one saying slowly. Carry it into your day. Return to it through what you encounter.

For practices to accompany the sayings, see The Wisdom of Awakening. For the underlying map of forgetting and remembering, see The Hidden Architecture.

Contents

Preface	v
1 The Light Before the World	1
1 The Way That Is Not Seen	1
2 The Two Become One	2
3 The Poverty of the Unknowing	2
4 The Father of Light	3
5 The Powers Question the Soul	3
6 The Hollow Reed	4
7 The Unforced Kingdom	4
8 The Servant at the Feast	4
9 The Teacher Who Does Not Teach	5
2 The Kingdom Within	7
10 The Single Eye	7
11 The Inner and the Outer	7
12 The Lion and the Child	8
13 The Unbinding	8
14 The Return to the Unborn	8
15 The Silence That Speaks	9
16 The Great Stillness	9
17 The Hidden Guide	10
18 When the Way Is Forgotten	11
3 The Garment of Silence	13
19 Not of This World	13
20 Passersby	13
21 The Face of the Invisible	14
22 The One Who Is Bent	14
23 The Wind Speaks Briefly	14

24	The Heavy Root	15
25	The Footprints of the Master	15
4	The Power of the Gentle	17
26	The Fertile Soil	17
27	The Futility of Control	17
28	The Way of Non-Violence	18
29	The Healing of the Ear	18
30	The Way, the Truth	19
31	Profit and Loss	19
32	The Great River	20
33	The Face of Peace	20
34	The Paradox of Power	21
5	The Union of Opposites	23
35	Split the Wood	23
36	True Virtue	24
37	The Ones Who Remain Whole	24
38	The Leaking Jar	25
39	The Three Seekers	25
40	Where the Mind Is	26
41	The Great Fullness	26
6	The Empty Vessel	27
42	The Yoke of Peace	27
43	The Body That Leans	28
44	Seeing Without Seeking	28
45	The Unlearning	29
46	The Heart of the Single One	29
47	Life and Death	29
48	Return to the Mother	30
49	The Eye of the Needle	30
50	The Widening Circle	31
7	The Unforced Life	33
51	The Child of the Light	33
52	Lay Down No Law	33
53	Sowing in Winter	34
54	Dig Down to the Root	34

55	Governing by Non-Grasping	35
56	The Great Acceptance	35
57	The Treasure Within	35
58	The Small Actions	36
59	The Least of These	36
60	The Pupil of the Eye	37
8	The Wisdom of the Child	39
61	The First Step	39
62	To Each as They Could See	40
63	Who Are You to Reject Her?	40
64	Leading by Following	41
65	The Three Jewels	41
66	The Sword of the Spirit	42
67	A Teaching Few Understand	43
68	Bring It Forth	43
69	The Gift of Not-Knowing	44
9	The Return to Source	45
70	The Courage of the Way	45
71	Rise Before You Die	45
72	He Wept	46
73	Not in Two Minds	46
74	Be of Good Courage	47
75	The Green Wood and the Dry	47
76	The Stretched Bow	48
77	The Stone and the Corner	48
78	The End of Debts	49
79	The Simple Kingdom	49
80	The Completion	50
	Sources and Echoes	51
	Glossary of the Inner Kingdom	55
	Colophon	57

Preface

Yeshua spoke:

Beloved,
you wander in search of what has never been lost.
You lift your eyes to heaven,
yet the Kingdom is already laid in your breath.
You seek the Light in scriptures and temples, yet the Light waits behind your seeing.

If you would know me,
enter the silence where your name has not yet formed.
There the Father of Light whispers, and the Mother of Wisdom gathers you to Herself.
There the two are made one,
and the one is shown to be none.

Do not follow me as a man follows another man.
Follow the One who moves within your own heart, for I am that One when you remember yourself.
And I am hidden from you only when you forget.

These sayings are not commandments but mirrors.
Look into them until you see your own face shining there—the face you had before the world divided you.

When you make the inner like the outer,
the above like the below,
the lion like the child, and the child like the unbegotten,

then the bridal chamber opens,
and you awaken as the Living One.

Come,
remove your old garments.
Step naked into the light of your own being.
There is nothing to fear.
What you take to be your shadow is only the veil you have outgrown.

Let the scroll unfold within you.
Let the sayings ripen in your silence.
And when the fruit is sweet, eat and become what you truly are.

May the Inner Sun rise in your heart.

Book 1

The Light Before the World

From the Silence, the Word.
From the Word, the Light.

I

THE WAY THAT IS NOT SEEN

The Word caught in ink is a husk;
the Word lived is a devouring fire.
The Kingdom is spread upon the earth, yet few behold it.
Those who hunt with the eyes find only shadows.
Those who rest in the still heart find the Source from which all seeing springs.

2

THE TWO BECOME ONE

The world is born of the cut in two—male and female, light and shadow, life and death.
Yet these divisions are garments only.
Truly I say to you:
when the two are made one,
the lion within you lies down as a child, and the child awakens
as the One who is not born.
Then the bridal chamber opens in your depths.

3

THE POVERTY OF THE UNKNOWING

People cling to the loud voices of the world.
They trust laws more than their own heart, beliefs more than living knowing.
Thus they sit in a treasury,
yet starve.
One who knows the self
no longer hoards teachings in a scroll.
Their very being becomes the scroll.

4

THE FATHER OF LIGHT

There is a Light that gives birth to itself—unborn, unbroken, unbound.
From this Light you came;
to this Light you return when you awaken.
The Father bears no wrath.
The Source casts no shadow.
Only the garments of the soul weave darkness.

5

THE POWERS QUESTION THE SOUL

Desire whispers, “You are mine.”
Ignorance declares, “You do not know yourself.”
Anger cries, “Strike, and be struck.”
The body murmurs, “I am all there is.”
And last comes the wisdom of the angry, sure that it serves the Good—watch most for this one;
it wears the face of righteousness.
But the awakened soul smiles and replies:
“You never touched me.
You grasped only my clothing.”

6

THE HOLLOW REED

The false self is a wall of stone—it resists the wind and crumbles.
The soul is a hollow reed—
it lets the Spirit breathe through it.
When you are empty,
even the storm becomes a song.

7

THE UNFORCED KINGDOM

The Kingdom comes by neither effort nor delay.
When you stop grasping at life, life reveals itself as eternal.
When you cease seeking the Kingdom, you discover you never left it.
What you call “sin” is forgetting.
What you call “salvation” is remembering.

8

THE SERVANT AT THE FEAST

Be as the servant who seeks the lowest place at the feast.
He does not contend,
yet the Master calls him forward.
So too the one who knows the Father takes the lowest seat and finds there the highest.
Humility is not making the self small;
it is seeing that the self is a shadow.

9

THE TEACHER WHO DOES NOT TEACH

I do not command belief.
I uncover what is hidden,
that you may see with your own eyes.
A master gives answers;
I give you questions—that you may become what I am.

The Kingdom Within

The door is shut, yet the house is vast. The lamp is small, yet it lights the world.

IO

THE SINGLE EYE

If the eye of the body is divided,
it sees only confusion.
If the eye of the heart is single,
it fills the whole body with light.
The Nous stands between soul and spirit—
a lamp lit from both sides.
Guard this lamp,
and the night cannot touch you.

II

THE INNER AND THE OUTER

The cup is precious for its emptiness.
So too the self is precious when it is emptied of self.
Inside and outside are mirrors.
When they reflect without distortion,
the All is revealed.

I2

THE LION AND THE CHILD

The world teaches you to be a lion—to conquer, to claim, to devour.
But I tell you: unless the lion becomes a child,
you will not know the Living Source.
The child is open, unguarded, whole.
There is no image of self to defend.
Therefore the child steps into the Kingdom easily.

I3

THE UNBINDING

What binds you is not outside you.
What frees you is not outside you.
Prison and key are fashioned from the same ignorance.
Awaken, and you will laugh—for there were never any gates.

I4

THE RETURN TO THE UNBORN

Before you were a form, you were the Breath.
Before you were breath, you were the Light.
Before you were the Light,
you were hidden in the Source.
To return is not to go backwards;
it is to remember the place that has never moved.

15

THE SILENCE THAT SPEAKS

Words are nets thrown into the sea.
They catch small fish,
but the Great Fish slips through.
Do not hunger for many words from me.
Hunger for the Silence
in which the Word is born.
Seal the senses. Quiet the mind.
There you and I are one life,
one breath,
one Being.

16

THE GREAT STILLNESS

Empty yourself of what you think you are.
Let the waters of the heart grow still.
When the mud settles by itself,
the bottom is revealed.
So too, when the soul becomes quiet, the Light of the Living Source shines through without effort.

I7

THE HIDDEN GUIDE

The greatest guide is the one who disappears.

The seeker awakens and cries:

“Look—

I have found the Way myself.”

Thus my work is done,

and no one knows my name.

18

WHEN THE WAY IS FORGOTTEN

When the Living Way is forgotten, people polish their reputations.
When the heart grows dim,
they multiply rules.
When rules no longer bind, they threaten with fire and promise crowns of gold.
What you call “good” and “evil” are shadows thrown by a divided mind.
Return to the beginning—to the spark before words—and fear falls away like rotted cloth.
When the eye becomes single,
the heart needs no commandments.

The Garment of Silence

The garment divides; the wearer unites.

19

NOT OF THIS WORLD

The world shouts; the Way whispers.
The world demands belief; the Way asks you to see.
The world praises power; the Way dissolves it.
Many chase desires.
Few seek liberation.
Yet the Kingdom belongs to those who loosen their grip on everything.

20

PASSERSBY

Be a traveller here.
Eat the bread of the inn with thanks;
sleep well under its roof;
in the morning, pay and go.
Do not carve your name into the door.
The one who passes through loses nothing when the house falls, for they never mistook it for home.

21

THE FACE OF THE INVISIBLE

The Way is a child-like mystery—seen only by those who forget themselves.
It has no beginning and no end.
It moves without moving.
Its face cannot be drawn,
yet it shines through your own face when you remember who you are.

22

THE ONE WHO IS BENT

If you wish to be whole, let yourself be broken.
If you wish to be full, empty yourself.
If you wish to be reborn, die to your false image.
I do not raise the proud;
I raise only the one who has laid the self down.

23

THE WIND SPEAKS BRIEFLY

Speak only what is true, and your words will be few.
The wind does not shout;
yet entire forests bow before it.
When you speak from the Living Source, your words carry no force—
yet they move mountains.

24

THE HEAVY ROOT

The root of the tree is unseen, yet it holds the whole tree upright.
So too the silent depth of your being supports your every step.
Those who forget their root are blown about by every wind—desire, fear, anger, ignorance.
Remember your depth, and nothing can uproot you.

25

THE FOOTPRINTS OF THE MASTER

A master walks without leaving marks, speaks without wounding, guides without controlling:
to the blind, a lamp;
to the lost, a doorway;
to the weary, rest.
Seeing the divine spark in all beings,
the master finds no one beyond help.

The Power of the Gentle

The gentle are the strong. The yielding are the immovable.

26

THE FERTILE SOIL

Know the strength of the sower, yet keep to the softness of the soil—
the fertile field that receives the seed.
Know knowledge, yet return to innocence.
Thus you become the place where the two become one.

27

THE FUTILITY OF CONTROL

Those who attempt to seize the Kingdom shatter it in their own hands.
The Kingdom is a living seed,
not an empire of stone.
Force bruises the soil.
Grasping crushes the grain.
But the one who serves the hidden life in all things finds the harvest rising of itself.

28

THE WAY OF NON-VIOLENCE

Those who walk in the Way do not harm.
They do not conquer.
They do not take up the sword.
For every blow you strike strikes you in return.
Every wound you inflict becomes your own garment of suffering.
Power gained through violence rots the soul;
power gained through awakening cannot be taken away.
Blessed are the peacemakers—they win the war within, and the world lays down its sword.

29

THE HEALING OF THE EAR

When the sword was drawn in the garden and the servant's ear fell to the ground,
I did not praise the blade.
I knelt, and made the servant whole.
Walk among the wounded as a mourner, never as a victor;
and when the fighting ends, do not sing.
Whoever rejoices over the fallen has become what they fought.

30

THE WAY, THE TRUTH

They ask me, "Show us the way."
I answer: I am.
They ask, "Show us the truth."
I answer: I am.
They ask, "Show us the life that does not die."
I answer: I am.
They look at me, and miss it.
Before you give your name, before you say "I am this" or "I am that," say only: I am.
That is the Way, the Truth, and the Life.
No one comes to the Father except through me.

31

PROFIT AND LOSS

You may read the hearts of others and still be a stranger to your own.
You may subdue cities and still be ruled by fear within.
To turn the gaze inward is illumination.
To befriend your own depth is freedom.
For what profit is there in gaining the ten thousand things if you lose the One who beholds them?

32

THE GREAT RIVER

The River of the Father and the Mother flows through all worlds, pouring itself into every vessel, claiming nothing as its own.
One who walks in this River acts without self-importance, gives without calculation,
rests without pride.
Thus they become transparent, and the Living Source is seen through them.

33

THE FACE OF PEACE

Hold fast to the image of the Living One and all beings come to rest in your presence.
Peace begins when you see that the one you oppose is more than your quarrel.
The awakened do not persuade—they radiate.

34

THE PARADOX OF POWER

To let something expand, first allow it to contract.
To let something grow strong, first allow it to weaken.
A seed must vanish into dark soil,
a breath must empty before it fills.
Thus I guide by reversal, teaching the soul through its own emptiness.

The Union of Opposites

Every pair is one thing, seen twice.

35

SPLIT THE WOOD

You think I am waiting at the end of your chores.
I am the grain the axe follows,
the weight beneath the lifted stone.
The Father is not busy,
yet the fields ripen;
the seasons turn with no hand upon the wheel.
When desire stirs, do not wrestle it.
Return to the work with a plain heart, and desire finds nowhere to stand.

36

TRUE VIRTUE

High virtue moves like breath—
it does not watch itself being virtuous.
Lesser virtue stares into its own reflection, checking whether it appears upright.
Many admire the blossom;
the wise wait for the fruit.
A tree is not known by its flowers, which any spring can paint,
but by what it gives in the lean months.
Do not ask whether a teacher is holy.
Ask what grows in you.

37

THE ONES WHO REMAIN WHOLE

Heaven remains Heaven because it does not exalt itself.
The earth remains earth because it does not resist its nature.
And the soul remains whole when it refuses to be divided.

38

THE LEAKING JAR

The Kingdom is like a woman carrying a jar of meal on the long road home.

The handle broke, and the meal ran out behind her,
and she did not know it.

When she reached her house and set the jar down,
she found it empty.

So the Way moves: by returning.

So the Way works: by giving way.

Every full thing was first an empty space.

Do not mourn the emptying jar.

You are coming home light.

39

THE THREE SEEKERS

The wise hear the living word and let it cut them to the heart;
they descend gladly into their own poverty.

The many hear it and weigh it like a coin, spending a little, keeping a little.

The foolish hear it and laugh aloud, mocking what they have not yet seen.

Yet I tell you:

the Light plays in them all.

The laughers, the traders, the broken ones—each walks toward the bridal chamber, though some walk with their backs turned.

40

WHERE THE MIND IS

Mary asked, "Lord, with what does one see you—with the soul, or with the spirit?"

I answered: with neither.

There is an eye between them,
and where that eye rests,
there your treasure lies.

Rest it on a name,
and you will starve in a palace.
Rest it on the Light,
and an empty field will feed you.

41

THE GREAT FULLNESS

The cup most full appears most empty.
The path most straight appears crooked.
The hand most skilled holds lightly.
The awakened make peace with paradox and so are not deceived by appearances.

The Empty Vessel

The vessel is made for what it does not hold.

42

THE YOKE OF PEACE

When the Way is lived, the ox knows its master's stall.
When the Way is forgotten, the sword is drawn in the street.
The yoke of the world is heavy with desire.
My yoke is easy, and brings peace.

43

THE BODY THAT LEANS

The hand reaches for the cup before the thirst arrives.
The eye reaches for the next face before it has seen this one.
A body that leans on a body falls when the other moves.
A soul that leans on both falls twice.
Craving is not hunger;
it is the fear of being empty.
Sit with the empty place awhile.
It is not a wound.
It is a door.

44

SEEING WITHOUT SEEKING

You cross seas and deserts to seek signs, yet the Sign looks out through your own eyes.
Without leaving your house,
you may behold the world within you.
Without straining your sight,
you may know the One who sees.
The more you chase what is outside,
the more you forsake the Treasure within.

45

THE UNLEARNING

The scholar gathers more words each day and builds a tower of opinions.
The seeker of the Way lays one stone down each day until only open sky remains.
She strips off garment after garment—belief, fear, reputation—
until the naked Light stands forth.
He who lets go of all things discovers that he holds the All.

46

THE HEART OF THE SINGLE ONE

The Single One is good to those who are good, and good to those who are not good—seeing only the Light within them.
Trusting those who trust, and trusting those who do not trust—for trust flows from the inner being, not theirs.

47

LIFE AND DEATH

Those who cling to life fear death.
Those who know Me fear neither.
Death is but the undressing of the bride before she enters the chamber.

48

RETURN TO THE MOTHER

There is a womb older than creation, the Silence that births the All.
It moves through you as breath,
yet it is not the breath.
Know the Mother of your soul,
and you recognize all her children.
Know the children as passing forms,
and you are drawn back to the Mother.
In returning to the Womb of Light you are no longer wounded by the powers, for you remember that you were never separate from the One who birthed you.

49

THE EYE OF THE NEEDLE

The world says, "Strive to enter the narrow gate."
But I tell you: The gate is narrow only because you carry the burden of the many.
It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for the one rich in self to enter the Kingdom.
Become small, become single,
and the narrow path becomes wide as the sky.

50

THE WIDENING CIRCLE

Light the lamp in your own heart, and it lights your house.
Let it burn in your house,
and the street walks by its glow.
Let the street carry it,
and the town remembers the road home.
Do not begin with the world;
the world is too far to reach.
Begin at the table where you eat, with the ones whose faults you know by heart.
How shall you know the world?
Look at your own house.

The Unforced Life

The unforced is the natural.

51

THE CHILD OF THE LIGHT

One who lives in the Light is like a newborn child—unafraid of serpents, unmoved by loud voices, unharmed by illusions.
The bones are soft, yet the strength is great.

52

LAY DOWN NO LAW

When I am gone, build no fence around my words.
Lay down no law but the one I gave you, lest the law you make become the cell you keep.
The more you forbid,
the more the heart learns to hide.
Cleanse the spring,
and every stream runs sweet.

53

SOWING IN WINTER

Sow in winter,
and you will reap in summer.
This world is the winter;
the Kingdom is the summer.
Under the frost the harvest sleeps, and under the harvest, the frost.
Do not wait for warmer days to plant.
The seed you keep from the cold will never see the sun.

54

DIG DOWN TO THE ROOT

Do not prune the branches of your sorrow.
Dig down to the root.
Hidden, it rules you;
it moves your hands to what you hate.
Seen, it withers in the light.
Ignorance is the mother of every grief, and knowing is her grave.

55

GOVERNING BY NON-GRASPING

Guide the soul as you would leaven the dough:
gently, until the whole loaf rises.
The Single One governs by not ruling, teaches by not preaching, achieves by not striving.
Thus the world settles in such presence.

56

THE GREAT ACCEPTANCE

The Kingdom is like the Great Sea.
It refuses no river,
no matter how bitter or clouded.
It judges no stream,
but takes all into its depth, making them one.
So too the Living One receives the pure and the stained alike, until all are cleared in the vastness of Love.

57

THE TREASURE WITHIN

The Living Way is shelter for all beings—a home for the whole and the broken alike.
Beautiful words can stir the mind, but a heart that has found this hidden refuge quietly transforms the world.

58

THE SMALL ACTIONS

Do the great work through small acts.
Respond to hatred with peace.
Untie the knot while it is loose.
Tend the vine while it is young.
Let the wound end with you;
do not send it on.

59

THE LEAST OF THESE

You look for me in the high places, and I am sitting by the road.
I was hungry, and you passed with a prayer on your lips.
I was a stranger, and you asked my name before you would open the door.
Do not search the heavens for the Living One.
Feed the one in front of you,
and you have fed me.
Every face that asks of you is my face, asking.

60

THE PUPIL OF THE EYE

Guard the one beside you as the eyelid guards the eye—quickly, without being asked, before the dust arrives.
Take no joy in what you win or what you know.
The only joy that does not sour is the one that rises when you look at another with love.

The Wisdom of the Child

The child asks, and is not ashamed of not knowing.

6I

THE FIRST STEP

A great tree grows from a mustard seed hidden in the dark earth.
A house is raised from a single stone.
The journey to the Father begins exactly where your feet stand now.
Do not wait for a holier place or time.
The bridal chamber is built from the step you take today.

62

TO EACH AS THEY COULD SEE

I did not come as I am.
I came as each could bear to see me:
to the great I was great,
to the small I was small,
to the angels an angel,
and to the hungry, bread.
I came not to make you clever,
but simple enough to see.
Do not quarrel over my face;
each of you has seen as much of it as you could hold.

63

WHO ARE YOU TO REJECT HER?

When Mary told what the Teacher had shown her, Peter said, "Would he speak to a woman and not to us?"
Levi answered him:
"If the Teacher made her worthy,
who are you to cast her out?"
Beware the jealousy that wears a disciple's robe.
The Light does not ask whom you outrank.
It asks only whether you can see.
Be ashamed, put on the true Human, and go out with nothing to defend.

64

LEADING BY FOLLOWING

The river does not boast, yet the valley drinks from it.
The one who makes himself high passes like a cloud;
the one who makes himself low waters many fields.
So the Single One leads by standing beneath all, bearing the weight of the weary,
and because there is no competition in him,
there is nothing in him to oppose.

65

THE THREE JEWELS

I have three treasures in this world:
a heart that will not wound,
a life that delights in simplicity, and a soul that refuses to stand above another.
Guard these,
and you will walk in the Light with me.
Lose them,
and you will trade the Kingdom for dust.

66

THE SWORD OF THE SPIRIT

Do not mistake your enemy.
Your enemy is the sleeper in you.
I did not come to bring the sleep of comfort,
but the sword of awakening.
Do you think this sword wounds flesh?
It severs the false from the true.
The sword of the Spirit is clear attention held in the Father's Light.
It falls between fear and the one who sees fear, between the story and the silent heart that hears it.
Where this sword descends, house divides against itself—the old loyalties of the self stand apart from the call of the Kingdom.
What is of fear falls away;
what is of the Living One remains.
Blessed is the one who lets this sword pass through the heart, for nothing real is lost, and the true self stands forth whole.

67

A TEACHING FEW UNDERSTAND

My words are simple to the ear yet sharp to the heart.
Many copy the sayings,
but few let them unwind their old garments.
Blessed is the one who wears the teaching as skin and lets the former self fall away like husk.
Such a one walks unseen,
yet the world is fed by their presence.

68

BRING IT FORTH

What is in you is not yours to bury.
The song you will not sing sours in the throat.
The word you will not speak grows teeth in the dark.
Let out what lives in you,
and it will be your life.
Hold it back,
and it will hold you.

69

THE GIFT OF NOT-KNOWING

To know that you do not know—this is clarity.

To think you know while living in ignorance—this is blindness.

The awakened remove the cataract from their own sight first.

The Return to Source

The return to Source is the return to Self.

70

THE COURAGE OF THE WAY

Daring without wisdom leads to death.
Wisdom without daring leads nowhere.
The Way gives courage that does not wound and power that does not dominate.

71

RISE BEFORE YOU DIE

How can death frighten
one who has already risen?
Those who say, "First I will die, and then I will rise," walk the road backward.
Rise while there is breath in you,
for the grave is no door to one who never woke.
The resurrection does not wait at the end of your days.
It waits at the end of your sleep.

72

HE WEPT

At the grave of my friend
I knew he would rise, and still I wept.
Do not think the awakened are made of stone.
The one who cannot be shaken is not the one who cannot be moved.
Weep with those who weep;
the Light does not stand above sorrow but kneels beside it.

73

NOT IN TWO MINDS

When the Teacher had gone,
the disciples sat in fear, asking how they could go among the nations when he himself had not been spared.
Mary stood and greeted them,
and turned their hearts toward the Good.
Grief is not the danger;
the divided heart is.
Weep if you must,
but do not stand in two minds at the door.
What made you human has not left the room.

74

BE OF GOOD COURAGE

What clings to the passing is torn when the passing goes.
From the clinging comes the fever, and from the fever, a trembling in the whole body.
A fist holds no water;
a cupped hand is full.
People grasp at life so hard they forget to live it.
Open your hand, and be of good courage.

75

THE GREEN WOOD AND THE DRY

When the wood is green, it is full of sap and bends.
When the wood is dry, it is brittle and snaps.
That which yields belongs to the Living One;
that which resists belongs to the grave.
The one who remains supple cannot be broken.

76

THE STRETCHED BOW

The Father's way is like a bow drawn back:
what is high, he lowers;
what is low, he lifts.
He empties the full to fill the empty.
The world's way runs the other way—it takes from the hungry to feed the full.
Give as the bow gives,
and do not stay to be thanked.

77

THE STONE AND THE CORNER

Truly I say to you:
what is soft and willing passes where hardness breaks.
Water, patient and lowly, carves what the hammer cannot.
The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone of the temple.
So too the gentle, despised by the strong,
uphold a world they did not claim as theirs.

78

THE END OF DEBTS

Even after a truce, resentment lingers.
But the awakened hold no accounts.
They see no debtor, no creditor—only the One Light in many forms.

79

THE SIMPLE KINGDOM

Imagine a small, peaceful land where people taste simplicity and lose the appetite for excess.
Such a kingdom is within you.
Live there, and the world outside becomes gentle.

80

THE COMPLETION

Truth does not dress itself in splendor.
Splendor often hides a lie.
I give what I have been given and do not count the cost.
The more the Single One pours out,
the more the Source flows through him—for he draws not from his own store, but from the spring that cannot be emptied.
So the scripture ends where the Way begins:
in silence, in seeing,
in the Light that you are.

Sources and Echoes

Most sayings answer a chapter of the Tao Te Ching, taken in order; some draw on other voices.

Thomas numbers are logia;

Mary numbers are pages of the Berlin Codex;

Odes are the Odes of Solomon.

The Light Before the World

- The Way That Is Not Seen: Tao Te Ching 1; Thomas 113.
- The Two Become One: Tao Te Ching 2; Thomas 22; Philip on the bridal chamber; Gospel of the Egyptians (quoted by Clement); Hymn of the Pearl.
- The Poverty of the Unknowing: Tao Te Ching 3; Thomas 3.
- The Father of Light: Tao Te Ching 4; Thomas 50.
- The Powers Question the Soul: Tao Te Ching 5; Mary 15–17, the soul's ascent past the seven powers.
- The Hollow Reed: Tao Te Ching 6; Thomas 78.
- The Unforced Kingdom: Tao Te Ching 7; Mary 7 (“there is no sin”); Gospel of Truth.
- The Servant at the Feast: Tao Te Ching 8; Luke 14:7–11.
- The Teacher Who Does Not Teach: Tao Te Ching 9; Thomas 13, 108.

The Kingdom Within

- The Single Eye: Tao Te Ching 10; Matthew 6:22; Mary 10 (the mind between soul and spirit); Dialogue of the Savior.
- The Inner and the Outer: Tao Te Ching 11; Thomas 22, 89.
- The Lion and the Child: Tao Te Ching 12; Thomas 7, 22.
- The Unbinding: Tao Te Ching 13; Ashtavakra Gita 1.11 (“as you think, so you become”).
- The Return to the Unborn: Tao Te Ching 14; Thomas 18–19; Hymn of the Pearl.

- The Silence That Speaks: Tao Te Ching 15, 56; Thomas 8.
- The Great Stillness: Tao Te Ching 16.
- The Hidden Guide: Tao Te Ching 17.
- When the Way Is Forgotten: Tao Te Ching 18–19; Philip (“light and darkness are brothers”).

The Garment of Silence

- Not of This World: Tao Te Ching 20; John 17:16.
- Passersby: Thomas 42.
- The Face of the Invisible: Tao Te Ching 21.
- The One Who Is Bent: Tao Te Ching 22; Matthew 23:12.
- The Wind Speaks Briefly: Tao Te Ching 23; John 3:8.
- The Heavy Root: Tao Te Ching 26.
- The Footprints of the Master: Tao Te Ching 27.

The Power of the Gentle

- The Fertile Soil: Tao Te Ching 28; Matthew 13:3–9.
- The Futility of Control: Tao Te Ching 29; Mark 4:26–29.
- The Way of Non-Violence: Tao Te Ching 30, 68; Matthew 26:52; Matthew 5:9.
- The Healing of the Ear: Tao Te Ching 31; Luke 22:50–51.
- The Way, the Truth: Tao Te Ching 32; John 14:6; the “I am” as self-inquiry (Advaita ātma-vichāra); compare the Ashtavakra Gita 1.3, 1.7.
- Profit and Loss: Tao Te Ching 33; Mark 8:36.
- The Great River: Tao Te Ching 34; Odes of Solomon 6.
- The Face of Peace: Tao Te Ching 35; John 14:27.
- The Paradox of Power: Tao Te Ching 36; John 12:24.

The Union of Opposites

- Split the Wood: Tao Te Ching 37; Thomas 77.
- True Virtue: Tao Te Ching 38; Matthew 6:1–4; Matthew 7:16.
- The Ones Who Remain Whole: Tao Te Ching 39.
- The Leaking Jar: Tao Te Ching 40; Thomas 97.
- The Three Seekers: Tao Te Ching 41; Matthew 13:3–9.
- Where the Mind Is: Tao Te Ching 44; Mary 10; Matthew 6:21.
- The Great Fullness: Tao Te Ching 45.

The Empty Vessel

- The Yoke of Peace: Tao Te Ching 46; Matthew 11:30.
- The Body That Leans: Thomas 87, 112.
- Seeing Without Seeking: Tao Te Ching 47; Thomas 3; Luke 17:21; Mary 8.
- The Unlearning: Tao Te Ching 48; Thomas 37.
- The Heart of the Single One: Tao Te Ching 49; Matthew 5:45.
- Life and Death: Tao Te Ching 50; Philip on the bridal chamber.
- Return to the Mother: Tao Te Ching 25, 52; Gospel of the Hebrews; Thunder, Perfect Mind.
- The Eye of the Needle: Tao Te Ching 53; Mark 10:25; Matthew 7:13–14.
- The Widening Circle: Tao Te Ching 54; Matthew 5:15.

The Unforced Life

- The Child of the Light: Tao Te Ching 55; Thomas 4; Luke 10:19.
- Lay Down No Law: Tao Te Ching 57; Mary 9 (“lay down no rule beyond what I appointed”).
- Sowing in Winter: Tao Te Ching 58; Philip (“those who sow in winter reap in summer”).
- Dig Down to the Root: Tao Te Ching 59; Philip on the root of evil; Matthew 3:10.
- Governing by Non-Grasping: Tao Te Ching 60; Thomas 96; Matthew 13:33.
- The Great Acceptance: Tao Te Ching 61.
- The Treasure Within: Tao Te Ching 62.
- The Small Actions: Tao Te Ching 63.
- The Least of These: Matthew 25:35–40.
- The Pupil of the Eye: Thomas 25; Gospel of the Hebrews (“never be joyful except when you look upon your brother in love”).

The Wisdom of the Child

- The First Step: Tao Te Ching 64; Thomas 20.
- To Each as They Could See: Tao Te Ching 65; Philip (he appeared “to the great as great, to the small as small”).
- Who Are You to Reject Her?: Mary 17–18 (Peter’s objection; Levi’s answer).
- Leading by Following: Tao Te Ching 66; Mark 10:43–45.
- The Three Jewels: Tao Te Ching 67.
- The Sword of the Spirit: Tao Te Ching 69; Matthew 10:34; Thomas 16.

- A Teaching Few Understand: Tao Te Ching 70.
- Bring It Forth: Thomas 70.
- The Gift of Not-Knowing: Tao Te Ching 71; John 9:41; Matthew 7:5.

The Return to Source

- The Courage of the Way: Tao Te Ching 73.
- Rise Before You Die: Tao Te Ching 74; Philip (those who say they will first die and then rise are mistaken).
- He Wept: John 11:35; Romans 12:15.
- Not in Two Minds: Mary 9.
- Be of Good Courage: Tao Te Ching 75; Mary 7–8.
- The Green Wood and the Dry: Tao Te Ching 76; Luke 23:31.
- The Stretched Bow: Tao Te Ching 77; Luke 1:52–53.
- The Stone and the Corner: Tao Te Ching 43, 78; Psalm 118:22; Thomas 66.
- The End of Debts: Tao Te Ching 79; Matthew 6:12.
- The Simple Kingdom: Tao Te Ching 80; Luke 17:21.
- The Completion: Tao Te Ching 81; Matthew 10:8.

For the ancient words themselves, see Wisdom Gospels in the Living Way library.

Glossary of the Inner Kingdom

Gnosis: Knowledge that is not intellectual or doctrinal, but direct, experiential knowing of the Divine. It is the recognition of one's own divine origin.

The Single One (Monachos): A term from the Gospel of Thomas for the solitary or unified seeker; one who has integrated the inner opposites and become whole.

Nous: The "Eye of the Heart" or spiritual intellect. It is the faculty within the human soul that perceives the Divine directly, distinct from the rational mind.

The Bridal Chamber: A Gnostic metaphor for the state of union where duality (male/female, human/divine, inner/outer) is dissolved and the soul is reunited with the Spirit.

The Mother: The feminine aspect of the Divine (often associated with the Holy Spirit in early Semitic Christian texts), representing Wisdom (Sophia), silence, and the womb of creation.

The Father: The masculine aspect of the Divine, representing the originating Light, the unmanifest structure, and the Will. In this scroll, Father and Mother are the two hands of the One Source.

The Way (Tao): The flow of the Universe; the unnameable Source that orders all things without force. In this scroll, it is identified with the Kingdom of Heaven spread upon the earth. The same word named the first followers of Jesus, who called their life the Way (Greek hodos, Hebrew derekh, Aramaic urhā) before they were called Christians (Acts 9:2; 11:26).

Living: Awake to the Source. Thomas calls Jesus "the living Jesus" and God "the living Father." To be living is to have come alive to one's origin;

the dead are those wholly absorbed in the surface of things. The Letter to the Hebrews speaks of “a new and living way” (10:20), in Syriac ʾurḥā d-ḥayyē, “a way of life.”

Colophon

This Scroll was copied in the stillness of the turning year, by a hand seeking only to disappear, that the Light might remain.

May Peace Be Upon the Reader.

End of Manuscript